

I will never support a law or regulation that will limit competition let satellite radio do what it does best keep us informed and entertain. When large companies are afraid of a little competition you wonder if they also push smaller companies out of business by price fixing and other unlawful tactics.

I am asking Congress and the FCC to not limit competition